Substitution of Paid Leave

- Employers may impose paid leave (unless barred by contract)
- Employer policies govern substitution of accrued paid leave

AFSCME
The Public Employees' Union for Northern California

- Intermittent/reduced schedule leaves for childbirth and newborn care
- Expand eligibility to entire bargaining unit
- Count unpaid FMLA time towards seniority

Expanding FMLA Protections,

- Enforce the FMLA through the CBA
- Restrict employer's substitution of paid leave
- Expand definition of family members

Use contract clauses to expand FMLA:

Expanding FMLA Protections

- Employees unable to afford to take the unpaid leave
- Employees want leave to apply to additional family members
- Employers feel employees are abusing unforeseeable, intermittent leave
